Applied Modernism: Living In The Now

April 3, 2013

Carnegie Museum of Art Theater

1902 1930 1947

University of Pittsburgh Architectural Studies Symposium 2013
Applied Modernism: Living in the Now
University of Pittsburgh | Architectural Studies Symposium 2013

Program

First Session | 1:30 - 3:00
Welcome and Introduction
Drew Armstrong + Mrinalini Rajagopalan
Architectural Studies Program | University of Pittsburgh

Diego Rivera and the ‘Building’ of Mexican Identity
Patricia Morgado
North Carolina State University

Generalizing Away Uniqueness: James Stirling’s Interrogation of the Oxbridge Courtyard
Amanda Reeser Lawrence
Northeastern University

Coffee Break
Second Session | 3:30 - 5:00

Pittsburgh’s Chatham Village: The Enduring Relevance of a Housing Revolution that Wasn’t Angelique Bamberg
University of Pittsburgh

Housing for Spatial Justice: The Women’s Development Corporation of Providence, Rhode Island
Ipek Türelı
McGill University

Discussion and Closing Remarks

Carnegie Museum of Art Theater
4400 Forbes Avenue

Wednesday, April 3
1:30 - 5:00 pm

For more information and to RSVP, please contact: Natalie Swabb at njs21@pitt.edu http://www.arch.pitt.edu/about/symposium.php