University of Pittsburgh
Architectural Studies Program
Fall 2013 Fieldtrip | October 11 – 15

Ohio + Indiana
Beaux-Arts | Modernism | Postmodernism | Contemporary

The annual Architectural Studies field trip is open only to declared majors. The objective is to visit major architectural sites in Ohio and Indiana, and to meet with faculty and students at the graduate architecture programs at The Ohio State University and the University of Cincinnati.

Space is limited to 16 undergraduate students. The cost of the trip is $250.00 per student, which will cover the full cost of transportation in two University of Pittsburgh vans, hotel accommodation for four nights, and all entrance fees. Some meals will also be included.

Checks made out to “The University of Pittsburgh” should be given to Professor Armstrong by Friday, September 6.
